It is said that England and Germany will seek to borrow $180,000,000 in this country in the near future. Come right along, boys; Uncle Sam has "money to burn," and the beauty of it is that every dollar of it is just as good as gold.

The Commonwealth's Attorney for this District has not as yet availed himself of THE LEDGER's columns to tell an anxious public why he set aside the election law passed by the recent Legislature. Does Mr. DAUM really think he is a "bigger" man than the Legislature, or does he think THE LEDGER is merely poking fun at him? If he does, he may find himself mistaken in both cases.

A DISPATCH from St. Petersburg says the Czar and Czarina are expected to reach Tsarskovo on December 30th. It would be too bad indeed if His Royal Nibs and Her Nibess didn't pull up in front of the Hotel de Vos in the dear old town on the date named; but then the world might survive. If they bowed in the next day, which would at least mean that they got there during the present century.

For family use in numberless ways Ballard's Snow Lamp is a useful and valuable article. Price, $2 and 50 cents. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

Mt. Sterling will soon have a fine system of waterworks.

Cold and cough cures are numerous, but the one that will have in merit is the new Honey and Tar, which is in great demand these days. J. Jas. Wood & Son, Lexington, Ky.

A. S. Thomas, James A. Barnes and J. N. Byron are applicants for the Postmastership at Owingsville.

William J. McHugh of Fleming county has become a resident of the Soldiers' Home at Dayton, O.

The person who disturbed the congregation last Sunday by coughing is requested to call on Dr. J. W. McHugh, of Aron's strong & Co. and get a bottle of Foleys Honey and Tar. It always gives relief.

The apartment of the estate of the late Frank K. Brumley has set apart $500 as the widow's allotment of the personally.

The funeral of the Rev. Ben C. Herr, whose death occurred this week at Colorado Springs, took place yesterday at Lexington.

Taber's Buckeye Fife, Ointment has been thoroughly tested and found to be the best for this most distressing and embarrassing of troubles. Price, $1.00. J. Jas. Wood & Son.

In his annual report, Dr. J. G. Carpenter, Superintendent of the Co-Immunb. (O.) Insane Asylum, says there are 70 farmers and 57 laborers patients in the institution, while the highest number of any other occupation is seven.

Mr. Newman was born in Barren county, and has been before the public as a Washington correspondent over two years. His reputation is National.

He has a knowledge of public men more extensive than any other man in the United States.

The Louisville Evening Post has secured his services and is now publishing his letters two or three times each week.

River falling fast all along the line.

The Bonanza will be the Pomeroy packet tonight.

The Hudson will pass down tonight from Pittsburgh.

The Stanley is due down from Charleston tomorrow.

The O'Neill, Alice and Harry Brown with town went out of the Ohio Wednesday.

A new towboat has been built out of the George Shiras for the combine and named Sailer.

The big model barge Chester was in the tow of the Boats bound for New Orleans and loaded with wire nails.

About 20,000,000 bushels of coal left Pittsburgh in twenty days and 7,500,000 bushels have been loaded and are ready to leave there on the next rise.

The towboat Volunteer is a ground at Racine. There is a good stage of water in the Ohio at present point, and the boat run around the rivermen. An effort will be made at once to float the boat.

Another chapter in the aquatic of Englewood, Ky. However, who was charged with violating the marine laws by acting as engineer on the towboat Chester by not having his license aboard the boat has developed. A communication from Major S. R. Brumbaugh, Supervising Inspector of the Steamboat Inspection Bureau, to Captains and mates are instructed by the Supervising Inspector to ascertain how President A. L. Litten of the Marine Engineers' Beneficial Association and other members of the crew of the Chester possessed of Englewood boat's license. The outcome will be awaited with interest, and Messrs. Atkinson and Williams will prove that matter, and a serious charge will be preferred against those who took the license if possible to secure the evidence.

SPRINGDALE.

Mr. Richard Pollitt and family have returned to their home at Germantown from a visit among relatives in Lewis County.

Sergeant Julius S. Degman arrived from California Thursday, having almost entirely recovered from his recent severe illness.

Mr. John Hallston, who went West last week, returned Monday, accompanied by a bonnie bride. Mr. Hallston's bride is the daughter of his fourth marriage. His bride, who was Miss Lucy Tolliver, is 22.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Degman are not only delighted over the safe return of Julius from the far-away Philippines, but Mr. D. is very proud of a couple of solid pieces of furniture, native bamboo beautifully carved and decorated and one other a solid mahogany.

FOPPORT.

J. W. Goddard was in Flemingsburg Tuesday. Humphries is down with measles.

Is. T. Gaebeke of Mt. Carmel was here on business Wednesday.

The protracted meeting closed Thursday with eight editions.

The Valley School is closed owing to an epidemic of measles.

Charles Carpenter and Miss Alma Wyeoff were married Saturday.

Miss Core Christian was married last week to Mr. Galliott of Ohio.

Miss Jessie Million and Mrs. Tee Seiler are visiting friends near Petersburg.

Miss Jenny Markwell has returned from a pleasant visit with friends in Ewing.

Samuel Selsor and Will Selsor left Monday for a week's sojourn in Catlettsburg.

A. J. Million and wife of Ewing visited their daughter, Mrs. J. W. Goddard, the past week.

Omar Miller and Harry Markwell spent a few days in Nicholasville over the holidays.

Dr. Garry of Flemingsburg was in our midst Wednesday visiting the small-pox patients and advising vaccination.

Miss Hattie Toler and Henry Wilson of Mt. Carmel were married at the home of the bride; Elder Reynolds officiating.

Miss Henry Lightner visited Catlettsburg and returned with a genuine case of small-pox. As a consequence there are eight other cases.

A quarantine has been declared around the Lightner and Florence farms, with O. W. Martin and Dick Berry as guards.

Diseases and danger lurk in the vital organs. The blood becomes vitiated and the body becomes weak. The heart over the stomach and liver fall to perform their functions as nature intended. Herbs and roots are the best remedy for the liver, where other preparations only do harm.
